On Saturday February 12th, you can get some exercise and mingle for a worthy cause at the Cupid's Chase 5K Run in NYC's Riverside Park.

Taking place in a total of 24 cities across 10 states, the annual event is hosted by Community Options, a nonprofit that supports people with disabilities. Each year, the Cupid's Chase raises about $100,000 per year for the organization. Two-thousand runners are expected in NYC.

One of the fun aspects of the event -- runners get to choose from an "Available" or "Unavailable" shirt to wear, as Cupid's Chase (hence the name) is also trying to make love connections.

Deadline for online registration is February 10, 2011, but you can also register the day of at Riverside Park. Click here to register or head on over to the Cupid's Chase Facebook page.
