Community Options Appoints Samantha Cutler as Executive Director of Corpus Christi Office

CORPUS CHRISTI, TX (March 9, 2017) —Samantha Cutler was recently appointed as the Executive Director of Community Options of Corpus Christi. Corpus Christi Community Options is a nonprofit organization supporting people with significant developmental and intellectual disabilities. As the Executive Director, Ms. Cutler will be overseeing the residential and employment services throughout Corpus Christi and the surrounding area.

“We are so very proud of Samantha,” said Robert Stack, President of Community Options. “Her advocacy coupled with her business expertise will enable persons with disabilities in Corpus Christi to lead more enriched and meaningful lives.”

Cutler joined Community Options in August 2014 in their San Antonio office. Samantha is a graduate of St. Mary’s University and received her bachelor’s degree in business. She has extensive experience in working with the community, marketing the Community Options’ Cupid’s Chase 5k annual fundraiser as well as their employment and housing programs. The San Antonio native will be leading the Corpus Christi Community Options office to grow and develop the residential, employment, and day program.

“I am excited for the opportunity to continue to advocate for individuals with disabilities and be a part of a great team in Corpus Christi who share my vision of growing Community Options,” said Cutler. “I look forward to bringing my knowledge and leadership to Corpus Christi.”
