

PRESS RELEASE

Bloomingtondale's Mayor Steenstra welcomes nonprofit to the neighborhood to enhance the lives of People with Disabilities

(Bloomingtondale, New Jersey, December 5, 2009)

Community Options, Inc. a national nonprofit organization that develops homes and employment supports for people with disabilities has moved one of their most prominent day support programs for people with disabilities to Bloomingtondale, New Jersey.

Journeys, a day program that provides vocational skills training, recreational and community inclusion as well as volunteer opportunities to people with disabilities, has relocated to a beautiful new location in downtown Bloomingtondale. "We are ecstatic to be a part of the Bloomingtondale community and are so appreciative of the warm welcome we have received," says, Jessica Guberman, Ph.D. Executive Director of Community Options.

"When you have an opportunity to diversify your town and include a program that does such tremendous good, it is always a pleasure to do so," said, Mayor Steenstra of Bloomingtondale.

Community Options has been developing homes and day programming and employment supports for people with disabilities for over twenty years. The organization has operations throughout all of New Jersey as well as 8 other states.

To become involved with the Journeys program please contact Megan Lamphear, Program Manager at 973-492-1745. To learn more about Community Options, please visit them on the web at www.comop.org or call 609-951-9900.

