CUNY Graduate School of Journalism partners with Social Enterprises at the New Yorker Hotel

(Tuesday, March 2, 2010, 2010, Princeton, New Jersey) – Community Options Enterprises offers training, employment and entrepreneurial business opportunities for people with disabilities. With seven entrepreneurial businesses operating across the country, Community Options Enterprises is at the cutting edge of not only creative business solutions, but also unique products and services to local communities throughout the country.

Community Options Enterprises recently became involved in the Society of Professional Journalist's Spring Conference in NYC as well as the Mark of Excellence Awards taking place at the New Yorker Hotel. Community Options Enterprises will be offering gift baskets from their unique gift store, Presents of Mind and flower arrangements from Vaseful Flowers and Gifts, the country's only nonprofit flower shop.

Rebecca Baker, President of the New York Deadline Club said, "We're grateful to Community Options Enterprises for their generous donation of gift baskets and flowers to the Society of Professional Journalist's Spring Conference in New York City this year. The gift baskets will raise money for our regional fund, and the flowers will be an attractive welcome to our guests at the Mark of Excellence Awards luncheon at The New Yorker Hotel."

"With the gift baskets and flowers, we will offer signage and collateral information that will be displayed with our products to raise awareness about our entrepreneurial businesses and how we are connecting with the world through what we do on a daily basis to support people with disabilities," says, Robert Stack, President and CEO of Community Options.

The Deadline Club is hosting the Society of Professional Journalist's 2010 Spring Conference at the CUNY Graduate School of Journalism in Midtown on April 9-10. For more information, please visit the Deadline Club at <http://www.deadlineclub.org/>.
