

Peter Shankman records public service announcement for Cupid's Chase 5K Run organized by Community Options Inc.

12/18/2011

Peter Shankman, Internet entrepreneur and founder of Help-A-Reporter-Out (HARO), has recorded a public service announcement urging participation in the 2012 Cupid's Chase 5K Run sponsored by Community Options Inc., a Princeton, NJ based national nonprofit organization that develops innovative housing and employment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities.

Shankman recorded the announcement through the Professional Podcast studios of Lubetkin Global Communications, a Cherry Hill based Internet audio and video production company.

Community Options operates in 37 cities across 10 states supporting thousands of people and their families with the help of more than 2,500 employees.

The public service announcement is available through the download link below for use on radio stations around the country.
