

Robert Stack appears on CEO Roundtable

Published on 09/07/2011

Robert Stack recently appeared on an Executive CEO Roundtable Discussion -CEO IntroNet.

CEO IntroNet is the brainchild of a group of successful CEOs and serial entrepreneurs who realize the vital need for a private, secure and trusted means for sitting CEOs, Presidents, Executive Directors, Managing Partners and other chief decision makers to connect with each other across geographical, industry, and association boundaries.

CEO IntroNet provides the fast direct connection — decision maker to decision maker. Whether you need to find a partner for a joint response to an RFP, you're looking for a specific product or service to buy, or you need help with your most important charitable cause, CEO IntroNet provides an exclusive social network for CEOs to find each other, develop trust, connect and do business together.
