COLUMBIA, SC (WACH) – If you want to get some exercise and help a great cause, a 5K run will happen next weekend right here in Columbia.

The Ninth Annual Cupid's Chase will take place Saturday, Feb. 11, Valentine's Day, at Maxcy Gregg Park. The race begins at 10 a.m., but the event will start at 8 a.m.

The race coats $30 before February 10 and $40 on the day of the event.

Our Courtney King sat down with two members of the organization to find out more about the race and why they race.
