Realty of Princeton and Bonefish Grill Throw End of Summer Bash to Benefit Community Options

PRINCETON, NJ – On Wednesday, September 20, Realty of Princeton partnered with Bonefish Grill in Lawrenceville, NJ for its annual “End of Summer Get Together.”

This year, Realty of Princeton and Bonefish Grill celebrated the end of summer with a donation to local nonprofit Community Options of Princeton, NJ. Community Options provides housing and employment support to thousands of individuals with intellectual and development disabilities across 11 states. The donation was made to the organization’s entrepreneurial businesses (Community Options Enterprises) that operate to integrate people with disabilities into the workforce.

Jim McKenna, the Broker and Owner of Realty of Princeton, has served on the Business Advisory Council for Community Options since 2015.

“Realty of Princeton is excited to partner with Bonefish Grill of Lawrenceville to give back to the community,” said McKenna, who collaborated with Bonefish Grill managing partner Christopher Wilkerson on the event. “Having spent the last few years on their Business Advisory Council, Community Options Enterprises is consistently pushing for the best in service for the individuals they support.”

The event was held at Bonefish Grill in Lawrenceville, inside the Mercer Mall.

Community Options Enterprises consists of Vaseful, a flower shop in Edison; Presents of Mind, a gift store in Flanders and Daily Plan It, a completely furnished office building that offers rental space and tenancy to local businesses, located in Morristown, Princeton and Moorestown.
