Community Options to Host Annual Spring Golf Classic in Mercer County

PRINCETON, NJ (April 11, 2018) – On May 21, Community Options, a national nonprofit organization dedicated to providing housing and employment support to people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, will host its annual Spring Golf Classic at TPC Jasna Polana in Princeton, NJ.

Registration begins at 10:30 a.m. with lunch served at 11 a.m. The shotgun start will kick off the golf festivities at 12:30 p.m. At the conclusion of the round, a dinner and award ceremony will be held around 5:30 p.m.

TPC Jasna Polana is a 230-acre private golf club in Mercer County. It was designed by notable PGA golfer Gary Player. TPC Jasna Polana played host to PGA TOUR Champions Instinet Classic for 3 years from 2000-2002 and also hosted a Shell's Wonderful World of Golf match in 1999. It was originally built in the early 1970s as a country home until 1998. The pro shop has been named one of the "100 Best Golf Shops in America" by Golf World Business. It is located at 4519 Province Line Road in Princeton.

Sponsorship opportunities and golf registration feeds both start at $500. Deadline for both is May 10.
