Jennifer Maine Joins Community Options as Associate Executive Director in Lubbock, Texas

August 21, 2019

Princeton, NJ- On April 17, 2019, Community Options, Inc. appointed Jennifer Maine as the Associate Executive Director of the Lubbock, Texas region. Community Options, Inc. is a national non-profit that serves over 3,500 people with developmental disabilities across 10 states by providing them with housing and employment services.

In her role as Associate Executive Director, Maine will be committed to Community Options' mission to develop housing and employment supports for people with disabilities. Her responsibilities include the oversight of Community Options' programs and operations in Lubbock, Texas that support 17 people and employ 35 staff.

Maine is the proud mother of three wonderful children. She lives life with a passion for following her faith. Maine is excited to make a huge difference for everyone in the Lubbock community, and especially for people with developmental disabilities. When asked about her new role she said, "I have a great team and I look forward to growing Community Options in Lubbock."

Maine has worked with people with developmental disabilities in the Lubbock community for over 10 years. She recently graduated with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from American InterContinental University. And in 2020, she will be pursuing her master's degree in social work. Most recently, Maine worked served as a Case Manager with Daybreak Community Services.
