Community Options Appoints LaConda Moore as Regional Vice President

PRINCETON, NJ – Community Options, Inc. has appointed LaConda Moore as Regional Vice President to oversee operations in South Carolina and Tennessee.

Community Options is a national nonprofit that provides housing and employment for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. In her new role, Moore will manage programs supporting over 400 people with disabilities in South Carolina and Tennessee.

“LaConda has been a tremendous advocate for people with developmental disabilities and I am delighted she has accepted this new position,” said Robert Stack, President and CEO of Community Options. “Our South Carolina and Tennessee regions will benefit greatly from her leadership and expertise.”

Moore joined Community Options in 2017 as Executive Director in Greenville, South Carolina. Moore began her career as a Direct Support Professional and has over 33 years of experience in the field. Moore has grown in leadership positions throughout her career, working as a Program Manager, Director of Residential Services, and Director of Transitional Services.

“People with developmental disabilities are no different than anyone else and deserve to be treated that way,” said Moore. “I look forward to working with our teams in South Carolina and Tennessee to continue to help people with disabilities live meaningful and independent lives.”

Moore holds a B.A. in Psychology from the University of South Carolina. She has received certifications from the South Carolina Human Service Provider Association in Executive Leadership and from Duke University in Management Training.
