Community Options Hosts Golf Tournament in Support of People with Disabilities

Princeton, NJ – Community Options, Inc hosted the 28th Annual iMatter Golf Classic on Monday, May 24, 2021, at TPC Jasna Polana in Princeton, NJ.

With over 120 golfers, sponsors, and volunteers in attendance, Community Options raised more than $175,000. These funds will directly support people with disabilities and their caregivers.

Community Options is a national nonprofit that provides housing and employment to over 4,000 people with disabilities in ten states. The organization is headquartered in Princeton and employs over 5,200 people.

“I am so pleased that we had a perfect day for the Community Options’ iMatter Spring Golf Classic this year,” said Phil Lian, “Every round of golf supported Community Options’ residents and program participants to achieve their goals and live rewarding and fulfilling lives.”

The day’s events included an outdoor grilled lunch, silent auction, and an 18-hole game with a shotgun start. Players competed for prizes including the Hole-in-One Challenge sponsored by Haldeman Auto Group.

Community Options has hosted a golf tournament every year since 1993. The first tournament took place at the Torresdale Frankford Country Club (since renamed the Union League Golf Club at Torresdale). The last four tournaments were held at TPC Jasna Polana. Next year, Community Options looks forward to an exciting change as we host the event at the award-winning Union League Liberty Hill in Lafayette Hill, PA.
