Interested job seekers can learn about full-time and part-time positions, Community Options' comprehensive benefits program, and flexible shift schedules.

Community Options' staff work in homes and in the community to support people with disabilities. The staff are critical to the everyday life of people with disabilities. They help them get to and from work, prepare meals, and stay engaged with the community.

“I cannot express enough praise to all the staff at Community Options who care for my sister,” said Ms. Caldwell, whose sister lives in a Community Options home in Middlesex County. “The home she is in is beautiful and the dedication shown by the staff throughout the past year has been outstanding.”

Community Options is the third largest nonprofit in New Jersey. Community Options supports over 1,200 people and employs over 1,500 staff statewide.
