Community Options, Inc. Holds Annual Board Meeting at Union League Liberty Hill

Philadelphia, PA - Community Options, Inc., a leading national nonprofit organization that develops housing and employment supports for people with disabilities, is pleased to announce that it will be holding its annual board meeting on May 21st, 2023, at the Union League Liberty Hill outside of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The meeting will be chaired by Dorothy Goodwin, a board member from South Carolina, alongside the organization's President, Robert Stack.

Community Options will unveil its $385 million budget, which will support thousands of people with disabilities in 52 cities across 11 states. The budget includes funding for innovative programs aimed at providing the highest quality of life for people with disabilities.

Community Options will also announce the appointment of its new Chief Impact Officer, who will guide efforts to improve the lives of people with disabilities. The organization will discuss growth of its supported employment programs, which are available in most of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Additionally, Community Options will highlight the support received from both Senator Bob Casey and Senator Tim Scott, who have been instrumental in securing funding for the organization's programs and services.

"As you look back, take satisfaction in all that you have accomplished, reflect on those you have had the good fortune of working alongside and take comfort in the knowledge that you have made your community a better place," wrote Senator Scott in a letter congratulating Community Options for over three decades of success.

The organization will review the impact of its entrepreneurial businesses, including the Daily Plan It and Vaseful flower store. The newest Daily Plan It in Newtown, PA, will also be showcased during the meeting.

"We are excited to announce our $385 million budget and the appointment of our Chief Impact Officer," said Robert Stack, President and CEO of Community Options. "Our supported employment programs have been a great success, and we are proud to have the support of national leaders including Senators Casey and Scott."
